Abstract

The miracle of the Holy Quran has many aspects; one of its important aspects is the scientific miracle. This aspect of the miracle has been extensively discussed in Ayatollah Mohammad Fazel Lankarani's book "Introduction of the Interpretation". One of them is entitled "The unseen News of the Holy Qur'an and the Legal Miracle of the Holy Qur'an as well as the Miracle in the Creation Secrets".

He has also pointed to scientific miracles in the fields of biology, geology, cosmology, historical, and legislation. Of course, he has explained each verse and examples scientifically.

In this article, the above cases will be examined in order to clarify that, firstly, the scientific miracle of the Holy Qur'an is one of the accepted aspects of the Quranic miracles and secondly, he is one of the pioneers of scientific miracle thought in the current time and has innovations in this field.
